Wheelchair Basketball / Baloncesto en Silla de Ruedas

Big dreams are achieved by rolling / Los grandes sueños se consiguen rodando

Wheelchair basketball is an adaptation of basketball for physically disabled people.

This sport has an intense calendar both nationally and internationally, and is one of the most outstanding sports in the Paralympic Games.

Game:

The rules are the same as conventional basketball but with the difference that different degrees of disability of the athletes are considered, and give them ratings from 0,5 (meaning high disability degree) up to 4,5 (for athletes with no disability).

Teams are formed by 5 players (12 players including substitutions) and the sum of the points applied to the players can't exceed 14.

Scoring:

- One point per free throws.
- Two points per field basket.
- Three points for a shot made behind the arc of the 3 point line.
